

CONSULTANCY FAIR 2022

CAREERS
SERVICE

Welcome!

The Consultancy Fair offers Cambridge students, researchers and alumni the opportunity to explore the variety of different career options in the consultancy sector.

Whether you are in the exploratory stages or know precisely what you want from your future career, this fair allows you to meet a range of recruiters, keen to attract Cambridge students and graduates to their teams. You will develop insights into and compare different company cultures, working practices and career paths to discover your best fit.

In this brochure, you'll find an overview of the organisations attending the In-Person Careers Fair (Wednesday 12 October 13:00 – 17:00) and the Virtual Careers fair (Thursday 13 October 13:00 – 15:00).

Attending both events presents the greatest opportunity to meet with the widest range of organisations and offers different formats to suit your needs.

To speak 1:1 with an employer or to attend a group presentation, don't forget to sign up for the Virtual Fair sessions after registering.

ACCENTURE RETAIL STRATEGY

Accenture Retail Strategy is one of the UK's largest specialist retail teams, with experience working with major blue chip retailers and brands such as Nike, Burberry, and Primark. Our practice is growing rapidly, and today our team of ~60 consultants work closely with our clients across numerous different areas such as growth strategy, digital and ecommerce and retail operations. We help clients improve their competitiveness by anticipating and responding to the rapid changes in customer shopping habits and retail technologies.

Our project teams come in many shapes and sizes dependent on our clients' needs, which can include working with our colleagues in Consulting, Technology and other parts of Accenture. We have a five-tiered career progression structure: analyst, consultant, manager, senior manager, managing director. Recruits to Accenture Retail Strategy may start at any level, depending on previous experience.

ADVANCY

Advancy is a boutique global strategy consultancy, renowned for its impactful work, we serve Tier 1 private equity firms and blue-chip companies (C-level management). We work across a wide range of sectors, including industrials, chemicals, luxury goods, retail, consumer goods and travel & leisure. We focus on high-stakes issues: external growth, M&A, corporate strategy, and operations. We pride ourselves on our result-driven approach: quantitative fact-based analysis combined with strong sectorial expertise, resulting in the clear and tangible recommendations.

Although the teams are structured, we are very social, lively and inclusive. Our office is open-plan and there is a flat hierarchical structure and a very open door policy. Our culture is formed from the people we hire.

Headquartered in Paris, we are a global company with 250 consultants in our offices around the world. Our London office has been growing rapidly since its opening in 2017 and is looking for new consultants to participate in that growth story as part of our highly international team. We have an international reach, >50% of our projects are based outside of the UK, and we bring together highly international profiles who work closely with our worldwide offices.

Our London office is based between St James's and Piccadilly, with excellent access to the amenities both these locations have offer. We accept applications for all of our offices and can help put you in touch with the relevant people in those offices.

CIL MANAGEMENT CONSULTANTS

CIL is a consulting firm with a market-leading position within our niche. Most of our engagements involve an M&A element, primarily to advise private equity firms who are looking to invest in high growth businesses in the US and Europe. We also provide strategy consulting to a variety of companies, from global blue chips to some of the most successful smaller businesses. We work across a wide range of sectors, including healthcare, IT, financial services, energy, manufacturing, leisure, business services and many others.

Although we work in structured project teams, we are socially very equal, lively and inclusive. There are no corner offices, no cliques – we work in open-plan offices and are not political. We think 'a culture' is something larger firms have to invent. Ours is the product of the people we employ. We have two offices in the UK – one in London and one in Frome, near Bath. Our London office is based in the heart of The City near Bank / St Pauls, and within easy commuting distance of most parts of London. We have two overseas offices, Munich and Chicago.

CORPORATE VALUE ASSOCIATES

CVA is a small but global strategy consultancy, with offices across Europe & the Middle East, the Asia-Pacific region, and in the US. Our UK office is in Soho, London. We provide highly bespoke advice rather than off-the-shelf or process consulting to large corporates – often household names – at their national, regional, and global levels. We have a strong track record of innovative thinking and on-the-ground delivery, building on broad and deep experience developed over a period of decades.

Although a boutique, we work a number of industry verticals and topic areas. Currently these are: agri-food; automotive / mobility; energy & circular transition; new building, infrastructure & construction; new retail models; financial services; health; and cost optimisation.

At CVA you will be working with a friendly, non-hierarchical group of people spanning different nationalities and backgrounds. We are a vibrant close-knit community organised as a single EMEA unit. You will work in small teams that offer exceptional exposure to CVA partners and senior client personnel from day one, on projects both in Europe and further afield.

HORIZON STRATEGY

Horizon Strategy is a consultancy whose mission is to reinvent and democratise strategic advice.

This decade is ushering in the next-generation experience economy. It is digital-first, it moves in ever-shorter development cycles and is defined by intelligent products and services that offer more convenience and personalisation. In those circumstances, the traditional strategic planning, intended for conventional products and services, becomes obsolete. The solution is customer-centric, insights-powered and agile strategy development at every level of the organisation – a genuinely human-centred strategy.

We work with technology and telecoms companies to reinvent their experience, marketing & sales, and product strategies, so that they can build powerful customer connections and conquer the next frontier of growth.

HUMATICA

Humatica is an award-winning, specialist management consultancy focused on increasing organisational effectiveness. We help Private Equity funds and their portfolio company leaders to build strong organisations that deliver value growth.

Humatica is engaged for tricky high-impact organisational change initiatives including:

- pre- and post-deal organisational assessment including transformation planning,
- reorganisation including target operating model design and implementation,
- post-merger integration and bolt-on acquisitions,
- salesforce effectiveness and business process optimisation.
- rightsizing and organizational efficiency improvement,

Our purpose is to help senior executive clients establish fit-for-purpose organizational structures, processes, and behaviours. We work closely with our clients to implement pragmatic solutions that improve management effectiveness at all levels, make teams more productive, drive accountability and ensure entrepreneurial leadership.

What makes us unique is our data-driven, fact-based approach and tool-supported services to analyse the way organisations work. We assess the quality of structures, processes and behaviours. Through our focus and many years of experience, we have developed proprietary databases and codified the management practices and behaviours that drive business success. Humatica quickly delivers changes that address the root causes of organisational problems with minimal risk.

We have an open, collaborative and high-performance culture characterized by innate curiosity, transparency and respect for the individual. Personal development is facilitated through a rigorous and objective feedback process, training, and codified consulting best-practices in the “Humatica Way”. We offer team members not only the opportunity to work directly with entrepreneurial CXO-level clients and PE-funds, but also actively contribute to the entrepreneurial growth of our firm.

NEWTON EUROPE

We are Newton.

We're a team of the brightest and most curious minds with a fundamental belief that every organisation can be better. We crack some of the toughest business and public sector challenges of the day. Not with reports or copy and paste thinking. But by pinpointing and implementing the changes that will make the biggest difference – and then guaranteeing our fees against delivering measurable results.

We never start out assuming we know the answer, but we're always certain we'll find it and see it through to the finish. By uncovering the data that means the most important decisions are made with facts, not opinions. By bringing together people who live and breathe delivering results. And by embedding in client organisations this same passion, self-belief and know-how to thrive on any challenge in the future. We demand better in everything we do. We think you should too.

SCIENCE GROUP

Science Group is a leading science-led consulting and product development company, part of the hi-tech cluster and a global operator. We have three divisions: R&D Consultancy; Regulatory & Compliance and Frontier Smart Technologies, a market leader in digital audio technologies.

We work on truly breakthrough products, technologies and services which could change our world. So far this year we've undertaken projects in surgical robotics, in sustainable food alternatives, in regulatory approvals for products – such as hand sanitisers – launched in response to the pandemic and we have shipped more than 2.5 million internet and DAB radios. We all seek to make a difference in whatever we do and we support each other.

Our offices create open, stimulating environments in beautiful settings. One of the great things about Science Group, is that we are big enough to offer structure and career development options but small enough that if you make a difference, you'll be noticed.

<https://www.sciencegroup.com/>

SCITARIS

We are a boutique consulting firm consisting of passionate scientific minds working with pharma and biotech companies across the US and Europe. Driven by our deep scientific understanding, our mission is to maximize our clients' success in bringing drugs to the market that make meaningful changes to patients' lives.

Our work is focused on various aspects of R&D strategy: from answering deep strategic and technical questions around single assets to full blown portfolio management and corporate strategy. In addition, we perform science-driven screens to identify the most suitable drug in-licensing opportunities to fit every individual client's capabilities and goals.

Ultimately, the core of our business is the review of scientific and clinical data ranging from interrogating the merits of an in vitro cell-based experiment to evaluating the statistical assumptions, and thus power, of an on-going clinical trial with the goal of estimating its probability of success. This is then put into context with business and strategic analytical elements to generate key insights for our clients.

Our Firm's Values: Promote, support and value individual, and thus collective, brilliance – this is embodied by the belief that a collective group of strong minds are greater than the sum of the individuals. Provide an open & empowering work environment that values innovative ideas, social collaboration and continuous individual development, all with a reasonable work-life balance. Generating engaging, challenging & impactful consulting work in the biopharma R&D space with the deliverables pivoted around scientific depth leading to unique strategic insights.

STRATEGY&

PwC's Strategy& team is a market-leading consulting practice consisting of approximately 400 consultants in London, and also benefits from the broad expertise and international reach of the wider PwC and Strategy& networks. Strategy& can offer you a career with diverse and challenging assignments - our teams work with a wide variety of UK, European and Global corporate clients (from large consumer goods companies, online retailers, start-ups and FinTechs to charities, government departments and the public sector) and investors (private equity and investment funds).

We deliver a mix of strategy consulting projects, addressing key CEO questions on issues such as growth strategy, market entry, mergers and acquisitions and value creation. We evaluate each company's unique proposition and market positioning, identifying both innovative opportunities for growth and risk areas that need to be addressed.

Our Associates join us from a range of backgrounds, but all are intellectually curious and highly motivated. We also look for people who bring something more to our work than their academic credentials. For example, the self-discipline and team-working skills that stem from a sporting background; or leadership qualities gained through work experience.

Attracting the right talent is paramount and, as a progressive employer, Strategy& continues to develop a diverse, agile and collaborative workforce that feels empowered to be the best they can be.

THE PSC

Our aim is simple: to improve public services. For over 14 years, we have worked with some of the biggest public service organisations in the UK, collaborating with leaders and teams to make lasting change happen. For the past decade and a half we've been recognised for working with leaders in public services to tackle the knotty problems and make changes that last. We thrive on a challenge, we get our hands dirty and we're committed to delivering meaningful change that matters, to individuals, and society. Varied perspectives make our work more meaningful, and more impactful.

Our team is becoming increasingly diverse and we're taking direct action to widen access to consulting careers. We've created a hiring process that ensures our unconscious biases do not get in the way of finding the best people. We're currently working on ways to make the company actively anti-racist. This will involve uncomfortable conversations, but we think it's essential to make our company a better place to work, grow, and socialise.
